Report of Officers

Commandant:

Good news, I think. The VFW building is for sale and someone has the building under contract to purchase it. At this time, I believe that we and the VFW are going to be able to meet here free of charge for the foreseeable future. If this doesn't pan out, we have other options such as the American Legion Post #1, or possibly the WV Northern University room where we met for the Toys for Tots sorting last Christmas season.

Sr. Vice Commandant: None

Jr. Vice Commandant: None (Absent)

Adjutant: Read the minutes of the May meeting.

Paymaster:

General Ledger: $ 3194.01 (Checking)

Special Ledger: $ 2225.35

Detachment Account Total: $ 6119.36

This time last year we had $ 9,427.00. As you can see, we are slowly losing funds over the course of this past year. We spent $ 640 for the Detachment Challenge Coins, but we have only recovered $ 430.00 through coin sales, leaving $ 170.00 to be recovered before we begin to see some income from the coin sales.

Motion for approval: Larry Iverson Seconded By: John Richmond Aye U Nay

Judge Advocate:

During May, I spent 45 hours transporting 13 passengers to the VA hospital. Tom Abel spent 44 hours transporting 12 passengers to the VA hospital, for a total of 89 hours and 29 passengers.

Chaplain: None (Absent)

Sergeant At Arms: None (Absent)
